PREVENTION OF MONEY LAUNDERING ACT 2002

POLICY & PROCEDURE GUIDELINES

Swastika Commodities Private Limited

POLICIES AND PROCEDURE FOR PREVENTION OF MONEY LAUNDERING

(as per the requirements of the PMLA Act 2002)

The Forward Markets Commission (FMC) vide circular no: 07.01.2008-MKT-II dated 30.10.2009 and SEBI Circular no. CIR/ISD/AML/3/2010 dated 31st December, 2010 as amended from time to time has, in order to protect the commodity derivatives market from the menace of money laundering, felt it necessary to bring the members of commodity exchanges within the reporting ambit of Prevention of Money Laundering Act 2002 (PMLA). The members of the exchanges have, therefore, to follow and adopt:

- The Prevention of Money Laundering Act 2002
- Prevention of Money laundering (Maintenance of records of the nature and value of transaction, the procedure and manner of maintaining and time for furnishing information and verification and maintenance of the identity of clients of the Banking companies, Financial Institutions and Intermediaries) Rules, 2005
- All other rules, regulations, notifications issued by the Government of India from time to time in that behalf.

FMC's basic objective is that Members have adequate controls and procedures in place so that they know the customers with whom they are dealing

1. Company Policy

The KYC / AML philosophy of SWASTIKA COMMODITIES PVT. LTD. ("SCPL") is to prevent SCPL from being used, intentionally or unintentionally, by criminal elements for money laundering or terrorist financing activities. The objective of this policy is also to enable SCPL to know / understand its customers and their financial dealings better which in turn will help SCPL to manage its risks prudently.

2. Principal Officer Designation and Duties

The Company has designated Ms. Nidhi Baheti, as the Principal Officer for its Anti-Money Laundering Program, with full responsibility for the Company's AML program is qualified by experience, knowledge and training. The duties of the Principal Officer will include monitoring the Company's compliance with AML obligations and overseeing communication and training for employees. The Principal Officer will also ensure that proper AML records are kept. When warranted, the Principal Officer will ensure filing of necessary reports with the Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU – IND).

The Company has provided the FIU with contact information for the Principal Officer, including name, title, mailing address, e-mail address, telephone number and facsimile number. The Company will promptly notify FIU of any change to this information.

3. Appointment of Designated Director

Mr. Sunil Nyati, Director of the Company has been appointed as the Designated Director of the Company and details thereof has been intimated to FIU.

4. Client Due Diligence Process

The main aspect of this policy is the Customer Due Diligence Process which means:

- Obtaining sufficient information about to the client in order to identify who is the actual beneficial owner or on whose behalf transaction is conducted.
- Verify the customer's identity using reliable, independent source document, data or information.
- Conduct on-going due diligence and scrutiny of the account/client to ensure that the transaction conducted are consistent with the client's background/financial status, its activities and risk profile.
- In case of clients with past background in trading and whose KRAs are already registered, the company will rely on the data received from such KRA Agencies for Client Due Diligence.

We conduct periodic due diligence and scrutiny of client's transaction and accounts to ensure that transactions are being conducted in knowledge, to find out the risk profile, source of funds, etc. At regular interval, ongoing due diligence and scrutiny needs to be conducted i.e. perform ongoing scrutiny of the transactions and account throughout the course of the business relationship to ensure that the transactions being conducted are consistent with the Organization's knowledge of the client, its business and risk profile, taking into account, where necessary, the customer's source of funds.

The Customer Due Diligence Process includes four specific parameters:

Policy for Acceptance of Clients

Client Identification Procedure

Monitoring of transactions

Tracking and reporting Suspicious Transactions

5. Acceptance of Clients:

While accepting any new client following procedures / checks must be adhered to namely;

a. Accept client whom we are able to meet personally. The client should visit the office/branch or concerned official may visit the client at his residence / office address to get the necessary documents filled in and signed. Preferably accept clients who live within the jurisdiction of the branch.

b. Obtain complete information from the client. It should be ensured that the initial forms taken by the clients are filled in completely. All photocopies submitted by the client are checked against original documents without any exception. All supporting documents as specified by Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) and Exchanges are obtained and verified.

c. Check whether the client's identify matches with any person having known criminal background or is not banned in any other manner, whether in terms of criminal or civil proceedings by any enforcement/regulatory agency worldwide.

d. We should be careful while accepting clients of special category like NRIs, HNIs, Trust, Charities, NGOs, Politically Exposed Persons (PEP), persons of foreign origin, companies having closed share holding/ownership, companies dealing in foreign currency, clients in high risk countries, non face to face clients.

e. For non-individual customers as part of the due diligence measures, sufficient information must be obtained for identification of ultimate natural person(s) who beneficially own or control such entity. Whenever it is apparent that the transaction done through an account are beneficially owned by a party other than the client, that party should be identified and verified using client identification and verification procedures as early as possible. The beneficial owner is the natural person or persons who ultimately own, control, or influence a client and/or persons on whose behalf a transaction(s) is/are being conducted. It includes persons who exercise ultimate effective control over a legal person or arrangement.

f. Ensure that no account is being opened in a fictitious / benami name or on an anonymous basis.

g. Client's account should be opened only on receipt of mandatory information along with authentic supporting documents as per the regulatory guidelines. Do not open the accounts where the client refuses to provide information/documents and we should have sufficient reason to reject the client towards this reluctance.

Risk Categorization of Clients

We accept the clients based on the risk they are likely to pose. The aim is to identify clients who are likely to pose a higher than average risk of money laundering or terrorist financing. For this purpose, we need to classify the clients as Low Risk, Medium Risk and High Risk clients. By classifying the clients, we will be in a better position to apply appropriate customer due diligence process. That is, for High Risk client we have to apply higher degree of due diligence. The factors of risk perception depend on client's location, nature of business activity, turnover, nature of transaction, manner of payments, etc.

In order to achieve this objective, all clients should be classified in the following category:

Category A – Low Risk

Category B – Medium Risk

Category C – High Risk

Category A clients are those pose low or nil risk. They are good corporate/HNIs who have a respectable social and financial standing. These are the clients who make payment on time and take delivery of shares.

Category B clients are those who are intra-day clients or speculative clients. These are the clients who maintain running account with SCPL.

Category C clients are those who have defaulted in the past, have suspicious background, do not have any financial status, etc.

All transactions of clients identified as High Risk Categories should be put to counter measures. These measures may include further enhanced scrutiny of transactions, enhanced relevant reporting mechanism or systematic reporting of transactions and applying enhanced due diligence.

6. Customer Identification and Verification

At the time of opening an account or executing any transaction with it, the Company will verify and maintain the record of identity and current address or addresses including permanent address or addresses of the client, the nature of business of the client and his financial status as under:

7. Maintenance of records

Company shall have a system of maintaining proper record of all transactions including records of all transactions prescribed under Rule 3 of the Rules, as mentioned below:

- all cash transactions of the value of more than rupees ten lakhs or its equivalent in foreign currency;
- all series of cash transactions integrally connected to each other which have been valued below rupees ten lakhs or its equivalent in foreign currency where such series of transactions have taken place within a month;
- all cash transactions where forged or counterfeit currency notes or bank notes have been used as genuine and where any forgery of a valuable security has taken place;

- all suspicious transactions whether or not made in cash. Suspicious transaction means a transaction whether or not made in cash which, to a person acting in good faith -
 - gives rise to a reasonable ground of suspicion that it may involve the proceeds of crime; or
 - appears to be made in circumstances of unusual or unjustified complexity; or
 - appears to have no economic rationale or bonafide purpose; or
 - gives rise to a reasonable ground of suspicion that it may involve financing of the activities relating to terrorism

The records shall contain the following information:

- the nature of the transactions;
- the amount of the transaction and the currency in which it was denominated;
- the date on which the transaction was conducted; and
- the parties to the transaction."

SCPL shall take appropriate steps to evolve a system for proper maintenance and preservation of account information in a manner that allows data to be retrieved easily and quickly whenever required or when requested by the competent authorities. Further, SCPL shall maintain for such number of years as would be required under the PMLA 2002 and rules made thereunder from the date of transaction between SCPL and the client.

8. Monitoring Accounts for Suspicious Activity

Regular monitoring of transactions is vital of ensuring effectiveness of Anti Money Laundering procedures. This is possible only if we have an understanding of the normal activity of the client so that they can identify the deviant transactions/activities.

We shall pay special attention to all complex, unusually large transactions/patterns which appear to have no economic purpose. We may specify internal threshold limits for each class of client accounts.

We shall monitor through the automated means of Back Office Software / online surveillance software for unusual size, volume, pattern or type of transactions by monitoring following type of transactions:-

1. Daily client wise turnover and traded commodities contracts.

2. Daily M2M and/or Profit & loss to the client for verifying any pattern.
3. Trading pattern of the client in Particular commodity.
4. Cross Trades within Swastika Group.

For non automated monitoring, the following kinds of activities are to be mentioned as Red Flags and reported to the Principal Officer.

1. The customer exhibits unusual concern about the Company's compliance with government reporting requirements and the Company's AML policies (particularly concerning his or her identity, type of business and assets), or is reluctant or refuses to reveal any information concerning business activities, or furnishes unusual or suspicious identification or business documents.
2. The customer wishes to engage in transactions that lack business sense or apparent investment strategy, or are inconsistent with the customer's stated business or investment strategy.
3. The information provided by the customer that identifies a legitimate source for funds is false, misleading, or substantially incorrect.
4. Upon request, the customer refuses to identify or fails to indicate any legitimate source for his or her funds and other assets.
5. The customer (or a person publicly associated with the customer) has a questionable background or is the subject of news reports indicating possible criminal, civil, or regulatory violations.
6. The customer appears to be acting as an agent for an undisclosed principal, but declines or is reluctant, without legitimate commercial reasons, to provide information or is otherwise evasive regarding that person or entity.

7. The customer attempts to make frequent or large deposits of currency, insists on dealing only in cash, or asks for exemptions from the Company's policies relating to the deposit of cash.
8. The customer engages in transactions involving cash or cash equivalents or other monetary instruments that appear to be structured to avoid the government reporting requirements, especially if the cash or monetary instruments are in an amount just below reporting or recording thresholds.
9. For no apparent reason, the customer insists for multiple accounts under a single name or multiple names, with a large number of inter-account or third-party transfers.
10. The customer requests that a transaction be processed to avoid the Company's normal documentation requirements.
11. The customer maintains multiple accounts, or maintains accounts in the names of family members or corporate entities, for no apparent purpose.
12. The customer's account has inflows of funds or other assets well beyond the known income or resources of the customer.

When a member of the Company detects any red flag he or she will escalate the same to the Principal Officer for further investigation.

Broad categories of reason for suspicion and examples of suspicious transactions for an intermediary are indicated as under:

9. Reporting to FIU IND

For Cash Transaction Reporting

- All dealing in Cash that requiring reporting to the FIU IND will be done in the CTR format and in the matter and at intervals as prescribed by the FIU IND

For Suspicious Transactions Reporting

We will make a note of Suspicion Transaction that have not been explained to the satisfaction of the Principal Officer and thereafter report the same to the FIU IND and the required deadlines. This will typically be in cases where we know, suspect, or have reason to suspect:

- the transaction involves funds derived from illegal activity or is intended or conducted in order to hide or disguise funds or assets derived from illegal activity as part of a plan to violate or evade any the transaction reporting requirement,
- the transaction is designed, whether through structuring or otherwise, to evade the any requirements of PMLA Act and Rules framed thereof
- the transaction has no business or apparent lawful purpose or is not the sort in which the customer would normally be expected to engage, and we know, after examining the background, possible purpose of the transaction and other facts, of no reasonable explanation for the transaction, or
- the transaction involves the use of the Company to facilitate criminal activity.

We will not base our decision on whether to file a STR solely on whether the transaction falls above a set threshold. We will file a STR and notify law enforcement of all transactions that raise an identifiable suspicion of criminal, terrorist, or corrupt activities.

All STRs will be reported quarterly to the Board of Directors, with a clear reminder of the need to maintain the confidentiality of the STRs.

We will not notify any person involved in the transaction that the transaction has been reported, except as permitted by the PMLA Act and Rules thereof.

10.AML Record Keeping

a. STR Maintenance and Confidentiality

We will hold STRs and any supporting documentation confidential. We will not inform anyone outside of a law enforcement or regulatory agency or securities regulator about a STR. We will refuse any requests for STR information and immediately tell FIU IND of any such request we receive. We will segregate STR filings and copies of supporting documentation from other Company books and records to avoid disclosing STR filings. Our Principal Officer will handle all requests or other requests for STRs.

b. Responsibility for AML Records and SAR Filing

Principal Officer will be responsible to ensure that AML records are maintained properly and that STRs are filed as required

c. Records Required

As part of our AML program, our Company will create and maintain STRs and CTRs and relevant documentation on customer identity and verification. We will maintain STRs and their accompanying documentation for at least ten years.

11.Power of Central Government

Section 51 A of Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 (UAPA), relating to the purpose of prevention of, and for coping with terrorist activities was brought into effect through UAPA Amendment Act, 2008. In this regard, The Central Government has issued an order dated August 27th 2009 detailing the procedure for implementation of Section 51A of UAPA.

Under the aforementioned section, the Central Government is empowered to freeze, seize or attach funds and other financial assets or economic resources held by, on behalf of, or at the directions of the individuals, or entities entered in the schedule to the order, or any other person engaged in or suspected to be engaged in terrorism. The Government is also further empowered to prohibit any individual or entity from making any funds, financial assets or economic resources or related services available for the benefit of the individuals or the entities, entered in the schedule to the order, or any other person engaged in or suspected to be engaged in terrorism. The obligation to be followed by intermediaries to ensure intermediaries to ensure the effective and expeditious implementation of said order has been issued vide SEBI Circular ref no. ISD/AML/CIR-2/2009 Dated October 23, 2009, which needs to be complied with scrupulously.
